

ORDER FORM for Transcribed 2025 Edition of Claiborne Family Journal

Dr. Christopher J. Cleborne's The Claiborne Family Journal was started in 1877 when he began the research by corresponding with various Claiborne families. His last entry appears to be about 1906. George Mason Claiborne believed that Dr. C. J. Cleborne was recognized as the highest authority on Claiborne genealogy. The journal is made up of 309 handwritten 11" x 17" pages, including about 67 pedigree charts of many Claiborne, Cleburne and Cliburne families, along with a 16 page Index. The journal was found in a secretary desk at an estate sale in the 1950's and was given to Dr. Thomas Claiborne's uncle, Randolph Royal Claiborne, Jr. of Atlanta, Georgia. Dr. Claiborne brought a copy to the Claiborne Clan Reunion in Williamsburg, VA in 1997. The original journal is now at the Atlanta History Center in Atlanta, Georgia, but it has been transcribed, printed and is available as follows:
